

5/11 Arts & Culture Commission Meeting Minutes
Bryan Center

Attendees: Jamie Sharp, Brian Housh, Brittany Baum, David Turner, John Fleming, AJ Warren, Jana Steiner (potential ACC member), Tobi Reed (potential ACC member)

Minutes of April meeting accepted by all

Citizens' input: none

Old Business:

- Annual Report to Council went well. Explained how ACC is different from other commissions and that we produce events which require financial assistance.
- ACC vacancies: Brian explained the process of how to join ACC and how Sunshine Laws work to potential new members.

VIDA:

- Discussed posting information on VIDA and nomination process on YS Bulletin Board (Facebook), YS Village page (FB), YS Events page (Facebook), YS Open Discussion (Facebook), Village of YS Page
- Brittany to update flyer, draft language for website, design nomination form and draft language for Facebook posts.
- Brian is waiting on his inquiry regarding using JotForm on the website to accept nominations.
- John suggested linking to Dharma Center

ACC Webpage:

- Need to update list of members, include ACC initiatives to show current and past projects (VIDA, skate park, musician's agreement, JB Gallery, etc) so public has a better idea of what ACC is and purpose of ACC.
- Brittany has offered to work on drafting website language and make recommendations on design.

JB Gallery:

- JB Gallery launch set for October 14th.
- How do we fill the gallery? Three options: open call to artists, group show with a general theme, and soliciting directly. Brian suggested that we reach out to the Arts Council to build a relationship and gather their support. Final decision regarding process to get art in the gallery should be decided in June.

Draft of June Agenda:

- Review ACC web page
- VIDA nominations
- Action plan for JB Gallery October launch
- Village of YS sign
- Skate Park update
- "Most Interesting Person" idea on Tom's Market outdoor wall.
